The Report and Recommendation was mailed to plaintiff at the only address plaintiff provided to the court and the mailing was again returned as undeliverable. (See Doc. No. 22.)

DISCUSSION

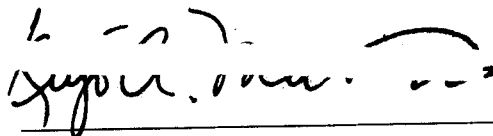

In reviewing a Report and Recommendation, the district court "may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings and recommendations made by the magistrate judge." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C). Where, as here, no objection to the Report and Recommendation has been filed, the district court "need only satisfy itself that that there is no clear error on the face of the record." Urena v. New York, 160 F. Supp. 2d 606, 609-10 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (quotation omitted).

Upon a careful review of the history of this action and the Report and Recommendation, the court finds no clear error in the Report and Recommendation and adopts it as the opinion of the court. Accordingly, plaintiff's complaint is hereby dismissed without prejudice.

The Clerk of the Court is respectfully directed to close this case and mail a copy of this Order to plaintiff at his last known address. Additionally, defendant's counsel shall mail a copy of this Order to plaintiff at his last known address and file a declaration of service by April 8, 2010.
